

Reminder Email 3 Sent to All Candidates – Monday 20 February 2017

Dear Candidate

Please read the following for important information on what you can and cannot bring to the test room, and the penalties for misconduct.

When you report to the test centre, you must bring with you:

- Your printed HPAT – Ireland 2017 Admission Ticket filled in and signed
(Note: Admission Tickets presented on electronic devices will not be accepted)
- Acceptable current and photo-bearing identification document
- Pencils (medium soft No. 2 or HB recommended)
- Pencil sharpener (optional)
- Eraser
- Black or blue pens (UL applicants ONLY)
- A clear water bottle (no labels attached)

Prohibited items that you cannot bring to the test room include:

- Mobile phones, calculators, ear plugs, scrap paper, dictionaries, audio or recording devices of any kind
- A wrist watch will be allowed, but any stop watch functions and alarms must be turned off. No desk watches, Apple watches, smart watches or clocks will be allowed.

We will endeavour to provide some storage facilities for candidates at the test centres, but you are advised to bring only essential items with you as neither the test centre nor the HPAT – Ireland Office can be held responsible for the security of your belongings.

Penalties for Misconduct

- breach of any of the security arrangements for the HPAT – Ireland test
- impersonation
- attempting to remove a test book or answer sheet or part thereof, or any notes, from the test room
- failure to follow test supervisor's instructions at all times
- giving or receiving assistance during the test
- creating a disturbance
- using prohibited aids (e.g. notes, scrap paper, calculator, mobile phone, audio/recording device etc.)
- writing, or marking your test paper or answer sheet after the instruction is given to stop writing
- writing on the Admission Ticket during the test
- copying another candidate's work
- using the test questions, their content or information about them for purposes other than your sitting of HPAT – Ireland is prohibited. This includes: publishing the HPAT – Ireland questions or any of their content or information about them on the internet, any digital format or otherwise; and/or passing the HPAT – Ireland questions, any of their content or information about them to third parties
- the giving of false or misleading information at any stage in connection with your participation in the HPAT – Ireland test

- infringement of copyright. Copyright infringement includes: performing those rights or authorising the performance of those rights which are granted at law exclusively to the copyright owner. These rights include the exclusive right to reproduce the copyright work in a material form and to communicate that work to the public
- in any way breaching (as determined by ACER in its absolute discretion) any of the terms and conditions of (a) your registration to participate
- in the HPAT – Ireland test; or (b) your purchase of any HPAT – Ireland preparation materials
- infringement of any rights (including but not limited to intellectual property rights) whatsoever relating to or subsisting in the HPAT – Ireland test or any part or element of it, including but not limited to the concept, structure, administration or conduct of the HPAT – Ireland test, the HPAT – Ireland trade mark and any HPAT – Ireland preparation materials prepared or published ACER any negligent, unlawful or wilful act or omission by you which ACER, in its absolute discretion, renders you to be unfit to participate in any HPAT – Ireland test, whether or not you are registered to participate at the time of ACER's determination.

CONSEQUENCES for misconduct include cancelling your registration to sit the HPAT – Ireland test without any refund, withholding of your HPAT – Ireland test results or disqualification from sitting any HPAT – Ireland test (whether it is the test for which you have registered or otherwise).

It is also possible that the misconduct will be referred to one or more educational institutions (whether or not it is the educational institution you are attending or have made application to attend).

YOU ARE PUT ON NOTICE that except as expressly provided at law, there is no right to challenge, appeal or seek review of any determination by ACER that misconduct has occurred or in relation to any consequences imposed by ACER for any misconduct. You should also be aware that your misconduct might also give rise to liability on your part to third parties.

Regards

The HPAT – Ireland Team
